

TAK THOG GONPA

This is the only monastery belonging to the Nyinisma-pa order. Guru Rinpoche (Padma Sambhava) is said to have founded the monastery. The temple where he meditated is still to be seen at Tak Thog monastery. The monastery is tucked up in the lap of a rock & owes its name to the roof which is not man-made but natural rock.

The Kangyur Lakhang contains the images of the Buddha with his two chief disciples. On the right is the image of Tse-Pag-med & to the left is Heruka.

To Phuk houses the images of Guru-Tsang-gyet (Eight Forms of Padma Sambhava), Guru Takeo Tsahl & 11 headed Avalokitesvara.

Urgyan Photang contains the images of Tul-Khar-Nam-Sum, Chen-ras-zig (Avalokitesvara), Guru Rigzin Dong-tup & Guru Takeo Tsahl.

The new monastery is built on ground level & contains the image of Guru Nanig Srith Zilon in a central position, & to its right is the image of Guru Dorje Dolo & its left is the image of Guru Padma Gyatro. There are seats for His Holiness the Dalai Lama & Taktunig Rinpoche, the latter is the incarnate Lama of the monastery.

The monastery holds two festival in a year. Tak Thog Tse Chu is held from the 9th to the 11th days of the 6th Tibetan month, & the second viz. Tak Thog Wangchoig is held from the 26th to 29th days of the 9th Tibetan month.
