Suburban Living: Social Life and the Built Environment in Seventeenth-Century London

health, domesticity and status in early modern London

A representative plan of Number 141 Houndsditch, a property owned by Christ's Hospital. It draws upon Guildhall Library MS 13443 dating from 1713, and in this version depicts plot and house boundaries, building materials (brick/wood), staircases, hearths and open areas. For details of its history and residents, see Appendix 3.
