

MINUTE SHEET.

Reference 2090 / 1 / 39
3
END

Chancey

I have read the Guatemalan resolutions and discussed them very shortly with Mr. Duggan. Apart from Resolution III about customs nomenclature and procedure, which may perhaps lead to something concrete, the resolutions seem to be strictly platonic.

Resolution VIII was a mode of escape from the South American enthusiasts who wanted to talk about a common monetary unit for the Americas without knowing what it meant. The United States Treasury apparently regard this resolution as meaningless and therefore harmless.

good

December 4th, 1939.

Will F.A. report to D. (copy D.O.I.) in E.?

hol 5.12

I hope so.

As I am going to N.Y. till the end of the week it is now 6.30 pm. — perhaps Chancey will do so this time!

good

Drift Lennith

Rich of us

*1939/12/12
Dec 12.*

GHSP:HK