THE UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

November 18, 1941.

Confidential

My dear Lord Halifax:

I am enclosing for your information a paraphrase of a secret message which the President has received from Mr. Churchill.

Believe me

Yours very sincerely,

Acknowledged.

Enclosure:
Paraphrase.

His Excellency
The Right Honorable
The Viscount Halifax, K.G.,
British Ambassador.

PARAPHRASE OF TELEGRAM RECEIVED

FROM: American Embassy, London

DATED: November 18, 1941

First - The amendment to your Neutrality Act affords us much encouragement. Second - I mean now by QUOTE some time during the fall END QUOTE, as phrased in my letter.
